

Joe Leinen
2 Kings 22-23; 2 Chronicles 34-35
9/30/2018

Lessons From A Young King

1. _____ to God

Are God's _____ your _____?

2. _____ before God's word

3. _____ to God

Discussion Questions

1. In what ways did Josiah show commitment to the Lord? In what ways are you showing, or failing to show commitment to the Lord? How does Josiah's example challenge your commitment to the Lord?
2. What things are important to God, in other words, what are God's priorities? In what ways could you be more committed to God's priorities in your life? (i.e. making disciples, involvement in the church, doing all for the glory of God, etc.)
3. How did Josiah demonstrate humility? In what ways do you struggle to be humble? How can you practice humility this week?
4. Is repentance a common theme of your life as you hear God's word? Is there some sin that you need to repent of right now? If so, please spend time confessing your sin to the Lord, asking his forgiveness, and commit yourself to living for Christ in obedience.
5. How did Josiah go about removing idolatry from Judah? What are the possible idols in your life? Are you willing to remove them, and how are you going to do that this week?
6. In what ways are you struggling to be obedient to God's commands? How are you going to obey God in those areas this week?
7. Just as God's judgment was going to come upon Judah, Christ's judgment is coming upon this world someday as well. Are you ready for that day? Have you humbled yourself as Josiah did before God? Have you turned to Christ and committed yourself to be his disciple? If you haven't please consider doing that today. If you have, would you praise God and spend time thanking him in prayer today?